International Association of Law Enforcement Planners BYLAWS

ARTICLE I - NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1 Name

1. The name of this organization shall be the International Association of Law Enforcement Planners (IALEP), hereinafter referred to as the Association, chartered as a 501(c)(6) non-profit professional organization in the State of Missouri.

Section 2 Goals and Purpose

1. This association is organized to enhance professionalism, improve communication, foster cooperation among law enforcement planners on all levels, and provide a forum for the exchange of innovative strategies and programs.
2. The Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws shall govern the Association, and it shall adopt no policy and shall take no action in conflict with either the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws.
3. This association shall be deemed a separate entity from all-existing state and/or local law enforcement planning groups. However, the Association shall have the authority to affiliate with similar organizations to further the purposes for which this association was formed.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP, DUES AND VOTING

Section 1 Types of Memberships

1. Membership in the Association shall be for individuals only, and shall be classified and defined as follows:
 - a. Active Member: Any full-time employee, or honorably retired former full-time employee of a national, regional, state, county, provincial, municipal or local law enforcement agency who: is designated as having organizational planning responsibilities; has previously served in a position having organizational planning responsibilities; or who holds, or has previously held, a management or executive position; and who has paid their annual association dues in full.
 - b. Associate Member: Any individual with a professional or academic interest in the law enforcement planning function who has paid their annual association dues in full. An associate member shall have privileges of active membership, except those of holding office, voting, and applying for professional certification.
 - c. Life Member: Any active or associate member in good standing awarded a lifetime membership. Bestowal of life member status requires consent of the Executive Board and a majority of votes during a general meeting of the membership. The President shall automatically be awarded life membership at the end of his/her term of office. A life member shall have all of the rights and privileges of an active member unless otherwise provided herein. A life member shall be exempt from the payment of Association dues.

Section 2 Restrictions

1. The individual members and/or Chapters of the association shall not attempt to influence legislation or participate in political activities on behalf of the International Association of Law Enforcement Planners without the express approval of its Executive Board.

Section 3 Dues

1. The Executive Board shall set annual dues. The membership year shall begin January 1 and extend through December 31. Membership dues shall be paid by March 1. New members will be responsible for payment of dues at time of membership approval. Dues paid by new members will be for the current calendar year.
2. Each member directly to the Association Treasurer shall submit annual association dues, and any chapter dues.
3. The Association Treasurer will remit all chapter dues collected quarterly to the appropriate chapter.
 - a. Chapters shall set their own dues.
 - b. Membership in a recognized Chapter shall be optional.

Section 4 Voting

1. There shall be one vote per active membership. Associate members shall not have voting privileges. Voting shall take place during general business meetings at the annual conference or by mail at the discretion of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE III - OFFICERS, RESPONSIBILITIES, TERMS OF OFFICE, ELECTIONS, AND VACANCIES

Section 1 Officers

1. The officers of the Association shall be the President, Executive Vice-President, Staff Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Immediate Past President, Repository Director and the Training and Certification Coordinator.
 - a. Officer vacancies, which shall be open to election at the annual conference, will be announced to the general membership in the newsletter prior to the annual conference.
 - b. Individuals must be active members in order to be eligible to hold office.
 - c. No chapter president may serve concurrently as an elected officer of the Association and as a chapter president. A chapter president may seek election to Association offices, but must resign as chapter president prior to assuming office.
2. The officers listed below in Section 2, Paragraphs 1 through 8, shall be the governing body of the Association and shall be called the Executive Board of the Association. Authority to take all appropriate measures and perform all duties required to accomplish the goals and objectives of the Association shall be vested in the Executive Board. The Executive Board may establish major administration policies and develop form procedures for the conduct of business affairs, in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws.
 - a. Such policies and procedures may include those concerning: Membership applications; regulations governing the budgeting, receipt, custody, disbursement, and accounting of the Association's funds; purchase contracts, travel vouchers, and other expenditures; employment and compensation of staff, order of business and conduct of the annual conference; and growth and development of the Association.

- b. Reasonable expenses incurred by members of the Executive Board, the Board Associates or of those committees established by the Executive Board as a result of association business may be reimbursed at the discretion of the Executive Board provided funds are available.
- c. The President, with the consent of the Executive Board may appoint, remove, and prescribe duties for all such assistants as may be necessary to carry on the work of the Association and may appoint, with the consent of the Executive Board, standing committees and other committees deemed necessary to accomplish the goals and objectives of the Association. All such committees will be governed by the precepts detailed in Rule 9.

- b. Term of the Conference Coordinator
- 1) The President of the Association, with the advice and consent of the Executive Board, shall review the qualifications of all applicants and appoint the Conference Coordinator biannually at those annual conferences held during even numbered years.
 - 2) Following appointment by the Executive Board, the Conference Coordinator shall serve a two-year, renewable term to begin on January 1 following the annual conference at which he/she is appointed.

Section 4 Elections

1. Nominations for any vacant office may be made once any active member at the annual conference opens the floor for nominations. At the time of election, all nominees must be active members of the Association, as defined in Article II, Section 1, Paragraph 1.a., must have been active members for at least two years and must have attended at least one prior annual conference. Nominees must also provide a letter of support signed by the Chief Executive Officer of their agency to be eligible for election.
2. The Nominations Committee prior to the election as allowed in Article IV, Section 3, will certify all candidates for eligibility.
3. A slate of certified nominees for all vacant positions shall be brought to the floor by the Chair of the Nominations Committee when the floor is opened for nominations.
4. All nominations for the offices of secretary, treasurer, and staff vice-president shall be voted on by secret ballot (unless there is only one candidate for the office). Each candidate receiving a majority of votes shall be declared elected. In the event no candidate receives a majority of votes cast on the first ballot, another ballot shall be taken between the two candidates receiving the most votes.
5. Elections shall take place prior to the end of the annual conference.

Section 5 Filling Vacancies

1. In the event any officer of the Association ceases to be an active member or is unable to continue the duties of the office, the Executive Board shall declare that office vacant and the office shall be filled in the following manner:
 - a. If the vacancy occurs in the office of the President, the Executive Vice-President shall become President, and the Staff Vice-President shall be Executive Vice-President for the remainder of the current term and be eligible for succession as President and Executive Vice-President, respectively, for the following term.

- b. If the vacancy occurs in the office of the Executive Vice-President, the Staff Vice-President shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the current term and be eligible for succession as the Executive Vice-President for the following term.
- c. If the vacancy occurs in the office of the Staff Vice-President, the Executive Board shall fill such a vacancy by appointing an individual from the active membership. Such appointment shall be effective until the next annual conference.
- d. If the vacancy occurs in the office of the Secretary, Treasurer, or the Training and Certification Coordinator, the Executive Board shall fill such a vacancy by appointing an individual from the active membership. Such appointment shall be effective until the end of the current bi-annual term.
- d. If a vacancy occurs in any of the Board Associate positions, the Executive Board shall fill such a vacancy by appointment or contract as soon as an appropriate applicant can be identified. In the event of the Conference Coordinator, the interim appointment is effective until the end of the current bi-annual term.
- e. If a vacancy occurs in the office of the Immediate Past President, it shall not be filled for the remainder of the current term.

ARTICLE IV - COMMITTEES

Section 1 Bylaws Committee

- 1. The President, as allowed in Article III, Section 2, Paragraph 1, of the Bylaws, shall appoint an active member, as defined in Article II, Section 1, Paragraph 1a, to serve as Chair of the Bylaws Committee.
 - a. The Chair, with concurrence of the President, shall appoint other active members as necessary to accomplish the work of the committee.
 - b. The Chair and the committee members shall serve at the pleasure of the President and may be reappointed as deemed necessary by subsequent presidents.
 - c. The Chair of the committee shall be responsible for insuring that the Bylaws are followed in all activities of the Association.
 - d. The committee shall be responsible for reviewing all bylaw proposals as allowed in Article VII.
 - e. The committee shall be responsible for reviewing all petitions as allowed in Article VI, Section 2.

Section 2 Certification and Awards Committee

- 1. The President, as allowed in Article III, Section 2, Paragraph 1, of the Bylaws, shall appoint an active member, as defined in Article II, Section 1, Paragraph 1a, to serve as Chair of the Certification and Awards Committee.
 - a. The Chair, with concurrence of the President, shall appoint other active members as necessary
 - b. The Chair and the committee members shall serve at the pleasure of the President and may be reappointed as deemed necessary by subsequent presidents.

- c. The Chair will be responsible for insuring that the Certification Process, Arthur J. Barnett Planner of the Year Award, and Chief Phillip E. Keith Project of the Year Award programs are administered in accordance with established guidelines.
- d. The committee shall be responsible for reviewing all applications for the Certification Process, Arthur J. Barnett Planner of the Year Award, and Chief Phillip E. Keith Project of the Year Award programs and making appropriate recommendations for award to the President as instructed.
- e. The Committee shall be responsible for coordinating the Annual Report award.

Section 3 Nominations Committee

- 1. The President, as allowed in Article III, Section 2, Paragraph 1, of the Bylaws, shall appoint an active member, as defined in Article II, Section 1, Paragraph 1a, to serve as Chair of the Nominations Committee.
 - a. The Chair, with concurrence of the President, shall appoint other active members as necessary to accomplish the work of the committee.
 - b. The Chair and the Committee members shall serve at the pleasure of the President and may be reappointed as deemed necessary by subsequent presidents.
 - c. The Chair of the committee shall be responsible for certifying that all candidates nominated for any given office meet the eligibility requirements for holding office as defined in Article III, Section 4, Paragraph 1.
 - d. The committee is responsible for selecting at least one qualified candidate for each vacant position. The Chair shall certify a slate of qualified nominees to the membership when nominations are opened on the floor.

Section 4 Ad Hoc Committees

- 1. The President, as allowed in Article III, Section 2, Paragraph 1, of the Bylaws, shall appoint such standing and other committees and chairs thereof as are authorized by the Association. The President shall be responsible for the proper functioning of all committees

Section 5 Expenses

- 1. The treasurer shall pay actual expenses incurred by the committees, provided that the Executive Board of the association authorized such expenses.

ARTICLE V - CHAPTERS

Section 1 Sanctioning

- 1. The formation of chapters is allowed under Article 1, Section 2, Paragraph 3.
- 2. A chapter shall be granted a charter by the Executive Board upon presenting evidence of satisfying the requirements detailed in Rule 10.

Section 2 Chapter Responsibilities

- 1. Chapters are responsible for their own day-to-day operations.
- 2. Each chapter is responsible for its own taxes, if any, and the filing of tax returns, if any.

3. Each chapter is responsible for the payment of its own debts. Furthermore, each chapter will hold harmless and/or indemnify the Association from any and all debts, liabilities and all other matters regarding and/or relating to the actions of that particular chapter.
4. Chapters shall conduct regularly scheduled meetings as a forum for the exchange of innovative strategies and programs. However, chapters shall not hold such meetings within fifteen (15) days of the Association's annual conference without approval of the Executive Board.
5. Chapters will submit the minutes of their meetings to the Association Office within thirty (30) days of the end of each such meeting.
6. Chapters will submit an annual summary level budget report. This report will be submitted to the Association Office each March 1 (report for the prior calendar year). The Association Treasurer will provide a template for this purpose.

Section 3 Revocation of Charter

1. The Executive Board, by simple majority, may revoke the charter of any chapter not complying with the objectives, bylaws, and rules of the Association.
2. Upon notification of revocation, the affected chapter shall immediately return all records, funds of the Association, and indicia of affiliation with the International Association of Law Enforcement Planners to the Association President.

ARTICLE VI - MEETINGS

Section 1 Annual Conference

1. The Association shall meet annually at such time and place as shall be determined by the Executive Board.
2. A regular membership meeting shall be held on the first day of the conference so that members may be informed of current issues.
3. A meeting of the regular membership, for the purpose of voting on officers and petitions, shall be held prior to the conclusion of the conference.

Section 2 Petitions

1. A petition is a written request to the Association for action on some matter that the author seeks to present for consideration. Any member of the Association may submit petitions at any time. All petitions shall be submitted to the Association President with a copy to the Association Secretary. The membership is encouraged to submit petitions no later than 15 days prior to the next annual meeting. However, petitions may be submitted at any time including during an annual meeting.
2. Each petition shall be in writing, and, upon presentation shall be numbered and referred by the President, without debate, to the appropriate Committee for consideration. The committee shall then report back to the membership whether the committee concurs or does not concur with the petition at the next meeting or via the quarterly newsletter. The committee shall state the reasons for their concurrence or non-concurrence prior to the membership vote on the petition. The committee's action shall not be binding upon the membership. The petition shall then be voted upon at the next meeting of the Association.

3. Any petition, which is adopted by the Association, shall be published in the minutes of the proceedings. All petitions rejected shall be referred to my number and title.

Section 3 Rules of Procedure

1. The rules of procedure at all meetings of the Association shall be those rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order Revised so far as applicable and when not in conflict with these Bylaws or the Articles of Incorporation.
2. All committee meetings and meetings of the Executive Board shall be open to the general membership unless closed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE VII - QUORUM

Section 1 Requirements

1. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the membership in attendance at an annual meeting shall constitute a quorum.
2. Two-thirds (2/3) of the Executive Board shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VIII - AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS AND RULES

Section 1 Requirements

1. The Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the active members voting at a general business meeting. A bylaw amendment accepted by the membership shall become effective at the time of the vote unless otherwise specified.
2. Proposed changes to the Bylaws shall be submitted to the President in the manner proscribed for petitions as allowed in Article VI, Section 2.
3. Copies of all proposed revisions to the Bylaws shall be distributed to conference attendees during the business meeting on the first day of the annual conference. Any additional proposals for bylaw changes brought by petition during the annual conference shall be posted in visible locations around the conference site by the close of the business day on which the petition is received. Voting on amendments or revisions to the Bylaws shall take place prior to the end of the annual conference.
4. Rules may be adopted and/or amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Board at any regular meeting, special meeting, or by mail, email, or Fax. Notice of the proposed rule change shall be sent to all members of the Executive Board no less than 20 days prior to the convening of the meeting.
5. All changes to the Bylaws and/or Rules shall be referred to the Bylaws Committee for proper wording and shall be published to the membership.

ARTICLE IX - BUDGET AND FINANCES

Section 1 Annual Budget Required

1. Beginning in calendar year 1994, the Executive Board shall submit a proposed annual budget at the preceding conference, to be voted on by the general membership.

2. The Executive Board is authorized to spend up to $1,500 for any one unbudgeted expense.

ARTICLE X - DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

Section 1 Duration of the Association

1. The duration of the Association shall be perpetual subject to termination only upon the consent of the Executive Board and a quorum of the voting membership during an annual or special meeting called for such purpose.

Section 2 Termination of the Association

1. Upon consent of the Executive Board and prior to the termination of the Association, the Board shall distribute all assets of the Association to such nonprofit charitable organization(s) described as exempt from taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding provisions of the United States revenue laws applicable at the time of termination) as shall, in the opinion of the Executive Board, be best able to effect the purposes of the Association as hereinabove expressed.

International Association of Law Enforcement Planners

RULES OF PROCEDURE

RULE 1 - PUBLICATIONS

Section 1. Newsletter

1. The association shall publish a newsletter to inform all members of ongoing business, news of interest, current legislation affecting law enforcement, recent submissions to the project repository, and preparations for the annual conference.
2. The Executive Vice-President shall be responsible for insuring the publication of the newsletter. The Executive Vice-President shall also be responsible for insuring that a record of expenditures relating to the publication of the newsletter are maintained and provided to the Treasurer with receipts at which time any necessary reimbursements shall be promptly made.

Section 2. Miscellaneous Publications

1. All news releases, special publications, and announcements must be reviewed and approved by the Association President or his/her designee prior to release to the general public.

RULE 2 - PROJECT REPOSITORY

Section 1. Aims and Purpose

1. The Association shall establish a national project abstract listing service, which will be housed at the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department. The abstract listing is established for the purpose of facilitating the exchange of innovative strategies and programs among law enforcement planning units.

Section 2. Repository Director

1. The Repository Director shall be a full-time employee of the Kansas City, Missouri, Police Department.
2. The Repository Director shall be responsible for the administration of the repository as outlined in Article III, Section 2, Paragraph 8.

Section 3. Operation

2. Members may contact the Repository Director regarding the recent abstract submissions to the repository.

Section 4. Planning Abstract Listing Service

1. All active and associate members shall have complete access to the Planning Abstract Listing Service including an on-line catalog.

RULE 3 - ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Section 1. Location and Time

1. The Association shall meet annually to review and approve actions taken by the Executive Board, to vote upon petitions placed before the membership and to exchange ideas and information relating to law enforcement planning.
2. The Executive Board shall determine the time and location of the conference. The length of the conference shall be determined by the Board on the basis of the amount of association business to be transacted. Notice of the time and place of the conference shall be given to each active and associate member at least ninety (90) days before the conference.

Section 2. Conference Preparations

1. The Conference Committee shall be made up of members of the IALEP Executive Board, the Conference Coordinator, members of any Agency(s) that wish to participate in hosting the conference and any other member deemed necessary and appointed by the Board. The exact division of labor and responsibilities is negotiated among the members of the Conference Committee under the guidance of the IALEP President.
2. The Conference Committee will operate within the Conference Planning Guide and shall be responsible for the reservation of the site and the development of facilities.
3. The Conference Committee must submit a Conference agenda to the Executive Board at the mid year before the conference. Following approval of the Conference agenda, any changes to the agenda must be immediately communicated to the Executive Board.
4. The President, assisted by the Executive Vice-President, shall be responsible for monitoring development of the program of the conference in conjunction with the Conference Committee.
5. The Staff Vice-President, in conjunction with the President and the Conference Committee, shall make the arrangements for exhibits and vendor presentations. The Staff Vice-President is authorized to arrange for contracts for exhibits of police equipment, supplies, or any other appropriate service or product, in accordance with a set of charges to be determined by the Executive Board.

Section 3. Conference Finances

1. The Executive Board in conjunction with the Conference Committee shall set fees for the annual conference.
2. The Conference Committee must submit a planned budget to the Executive Board at the conference the year prior, and submit the final budget for review by the Executive Board at the mid year before the conference.
3. Following mid year presentation of the final budget, any changes made raising the total budget over $500 must be approved by the Executive Board

Section 4. Reservations

1. To assist the President and the Conference Committee in planning for the conference, members shall be requested to indicate well in advance whether or not they plan to attend.

The amount of any penalty for late registration or the cancellation of reservations shall be determined by the Executive Board and indicated on the reservation form.

Section 5. Business

1. The program for each annual meeting shall provide for reports by the President, Secretary, Treasurer, and other officers and committees as may be appropriate.
2. An opportunity shall be given for any member to present to the members at the business session any matter deemed desirable for the good of the Association.

RULE 4 - PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION, PLANNER OF THE YEAR, PROJECT OF THE YEAR AND ANNUAL REPORT CONTEST

Section 1. Certification

1. The Association shall administer a professional certification program open to all active members of the Association.
2. The Training and Certification Coordinator, in conjunction with the Certification Committee, shall determine terms, duration and costs of certification with the concurrence of the Executive Board.
3. All funds collected as a result of the certification program shall be deposited into the Association's bank account.

Section 2. Planner of the Year

1. The Association shall administer an annual planner of the year program to recognize a member of the international law enforcement community who has made a significant contribution to the profession of law enforcement planning.
2. The Certification and Awards Committee shall determine the criteria and administration of the Arthur J. Barnett Planner of the Year Award program with concurrence of the Executive Board.
3. The Association may pay to the recipient of the Arthur J. Barnett Planner of the Year Award up to $500 toward travel costs in addition to one nights' lodging.

Section 3. Project of the Year

1. The Association shall administer an annual project of the year award program to recognize an active member and/or his/her agency for developing a project of significance to the law enforcement planning community.
2. The Certification and Awards Committee shall determine the criteria and administration of the Chief Phillip E. Keith Project of the Year Award program with concurrence of the Executive Board.
3. The Association may pay to the recipient of the Chief Phillip E. Keith Project of the Year Award up to $500 toward travel costs in addition to one nights' lodging.

Section 4. Long Standing Contribution and Achievement in the Profession

1. The Association shall administer an annual long standing contribution and achievement in the profession program to recognize an individual who has made a significant and long standing contribution to the law enforcement planning profession. This contribution has been done by way of unique, consistent actions and professional conduct that has assisted other colleagues and has advanced the recognition, practical application, and value of law enforcement planning.

2. The Certification and Awards Committee shall determine the criteria and administration of the O. W. Wilson Award of Career Achievement program with concurrence of the Executive Board.
3. The Association may pay to the recipient of the O. W. Wilson Award of Career Achievement up to $500 toward travel costs in addition to one nights' lodging.

Section 5. Annual Report Contest

1. The Association shall administer an Annual Report contest to recognize an agency for developing an Annual Report that best exemplifies the philosophy and values of our profession.
2. The Certification and Awards Committee shall determine the criteria and administration of the Annual Report Contest with concurrence of the Executive Board.

RULE 5 - GRANTS AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Section 1. Application for Support

1. The President of the Association or designee authorized by the Executive Board, may apply to philanthropic organizations, government agencies, corporations, or individuals for grant, for contributions of funds, or for property, in order to execute the general or special purposes of the Association. However, no application shall be made to or contribution received from any person or agency until the Executive Board has determined that such grant or contribution is motivated by the desire to further the purposes of the Association and not to personally benefit the donor.

Section 2. Acceptance of Funds for Support

1. Any member who receives an offer of grants or contributions for the association shall immediately notify the president. No grant or contribution shall be accepted unless approved by the Executive Board. Upon acceptance, the terms of such grant or contribution shall be set forth in writing and signed by both the president, on behalf of the association, and the donor.

Section 3. Administration of Funds for Support

1. Any grant or contribution, which has been approved by the Executive Board, shall be credited to the general fund of the Association unless a special fund is prescribed under the terms of the grant or contribution. The budgeting, receipt, custody, and disbursement of grants or contributions shall follow the procedure defined in the bylaws unless otherwise indicated in the terms of the grant or contribution.

RULE 6 - MEMBERSHIP PROCEDURE

Section 1. Records

1. The Treasurer shall keep a complete roster of all members of the Association recording the status of dues payment. This roster shall also include a listing of all recognized chapters and their members.
2. The Treasurer shall invoice all active members on a yearly basis for association dues.

Section 2. Application Procedure

1. Membership applications shall be sent to the Treasurer on forms provided by the Association. Each applicant shall be required to provide name, title, employing agency, chapter affiliation (if any), and mailing address.

Section 3. Resignation, Disqualification, and Transfer of Membership

1. Resignation: Any member wishing to resign may do so by providing written notice to an officer of the desire to terminate membership.
2. Disqualification: Any member delinquent in the payment of dues shall be notified thereof by the treasurer of the association. Any active member failing to pay dues shall forfeit voting and office-holding privileges at the annual conference. The name of any member delinquent in the payment of dues for a period of one year shall be submitted to the Executive Board for appropriate action.
3. Transferring a Membership: Any active member in good standing (i.e., who has paid current required dues) who transfers to a non-planning assignment may assign membership to an individual from the former assignment for the remainder of that membership year. Written notification must be made to the Executive Board at the time of the transfer. Any active member who transfers to a non-planning assignment and who wishes to retain affiliation with the association may be transferred to an associate member status by letter of notification to the president.
4. There shall be no refund of dues unless a membership application is rejected.

Section 4. Action Against Members

1. The Executive Board may censure, suspend, or expel any member for cause, provided that notice of such proposed action and the reasons therefore are mailed or given in writing to said member thirty (30) days in advance. Said member shall then have thirty days to answer such charges in writing or to request a hearing before the Executive Board, the hearing to be held at such time and place and in such manner as may be prescribed. An appeal of the decision of the Executive Board may be heard at the next annual conference where such decision may be sustained, reversed, or modified by a majority vote of the active members present.

Section 5. Individual and/or Independent Research and Involvement of IALEP

1. Any member wishing to reference, utilize or associate the name of IALEP in relation to independent or individual research and/or related grant funding (e.g. government funding) must first submit a proposal reviewed by the Executive Board, receive written authorization from the Executive Board, ensure the research follows the proposal, submit a copy of the research upon completion and make a report to the Board.

2. Should there be deviation from the original proposal, a revision must be submitted to the Board for review and approval.
3. Any member in violation of this bylaw will be subject to sanction under Rule 6, Section 4, Action Against Member.

RULE 7 - COLLECTION AND DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS

Section 1. Responsibility for Collection and Disbursement

1. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the collection of all monies or properties due the Association and for the payment of monies owed by the Association as authorized by the Executive Board. The Treasurer shall establish a uniform system of handling accounts of all receipts and disbursements. Ordinary business obligations may be discharged by the Treasurer, as they become due, with bills and vouchers to be approved at the next Board meeting.

Section 2. Deposit of Monies

1. Funds received by the Treasurer on behalf of the Association shall be deposited without unreasonable delay in an account of the Association at a bank approved by the Executive Board.

Section 3. Expense Accounts

1. All expenses of association members or committees, for which reimbursement is to be made by the Association, shall be submitted to the Treasurer. If the expense is proper, the Treasurer shall approve the same and forward it to the President for approval. Copies of all such accounts and other bills shall be kept by the Treasurer for the official files to be made available for audit.

Section 4. Audit

1. An annual audit shall be conducted as stated in Article III, Section 2, Paragraph 5.
2. The Treasurer shall provide the auditing agency with such information and records as may be required.

RULE 8 - MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1. Time

1. Meetings of the Executive Board shall be held in accordance with those guidelines set forth in Article VI.

Section 2. Expenses

1. No expense for travel of Board members will be paid for meetings held in conjunction with the annual conference. However, the Association will pay for expenses for food and lodging of members arising from the need to meet prior to and/or after the conference.
2. Conference registration fees will be waived for members of the Executive Board and Board Associates attending the annual conference. The Conference Treasurer will note such waivers and corresponding amounts in the conference ledger as a conference expense.
3. The Association, provided funds exist for such payment, shall pay expenses for lodging, travel, and per diem (equal to the federal rates established by the Travel Management policy) of Executive Board members to attend the Mid-Year board meeting. The Association, upon a majority vote of the Executive Board, may also pay expenses for Board Associates and Committee Chairs to attend the Mid-Year board meeting, if their attendance is deemed necessary by the President or a majority of the Executive Board.

Section 3. Notice of Meetings

1. Notice of Board meetings shall be given to members well in advance, except in cases of emergency, at which time notification of such meetings shall be communicated by wire or telephone. The President or the Secretary shall send such notice to each member.

Section 4. Order of Business

1. Minutes of previous meetings
2. Report of the President
3. Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer
4. Reports of special committees
5. Communications
6. Miscellaneous reports
7. Old or unfinished business
8. New Business

Section 5. Agenda

1. Prior to each meeting of the Board, the President shall prepare and distribute to all members an agenda identifying the matters to be discussed at the meeting organized in accordance with the order of business outlined in Rule 8, Section 4.

Section 6. Recording of the Proceedings of Meetings

1. The Secretary shall make a written record of the proceedings of each meeting of the Executive Board, in accordance with Article III, Section 2, Paragraph 4 of the Bylaws. In the event that the Secretary is unable to attend a meeting of the Executive Board, the President shall appoint another Board member as Acting Secretary prior to the start of the meeting.
2. In addition to the written minutes taken by the Secretary, all meetings of the Executive Board may be tape-recorded. The tape recording shall be retained by the Repository Director and made part of the permanent records of the Association.

Section 7. Reports of Meetings

1. Following meetings of the Board, the Secretary shall distribute to all members a written record of the minutes thereof. The secretary as part of the permanent record of the Association shall also keep a copy of the minutes. In addition, the Secretary will send a copy of the minutes to the Repository Director.

Section 8. Petitions

1. The Executive Board shall take all necessary action to put into effect any petition adopted by the Association at its annual conference.

RULE 9 - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Designation of Committees

1. The objectives and general duties of all committees shall be designated and the members of such committees, when appointed by the President, shall be notified of their responsibilities.

Section 2. Committee Work

1. The President of the Association shall maintain contact with all committees of the Association.
2. Executive Board members serving as ex-officio committee members shall assist the committees in their work.

Section 3. Authority of Committees

1. Neither the Chair nor the members of committees may incur expenditures payable out of association funds unless specifically authorized by the Executive Board. Nor shall such committees, their chair, or members solicit funds or receive monies on behalf of the Association, except as authorized by the association of

RULE 10 - REQUIREMENTS TO CHARTER A CHAPTER

Section 1. Members

1. A prospective Chapter must be comprised of active members from at least five (5) member agencies.

Section 2. Meetings

1. A prospective Chapter must require, at a minimum, two (2) meetings to be held during any given calendar year.

Section 3. Requirements

1. A prospective Chapter must secure, complete and submit to the Association Secretary an application for charter which shall include the following information.
 - a. The name, title/position, agency, business address, and business telephone number of all paid members of the prospective chapter.
